You cannot register to vote in Arizona if:

- You have been convicted of a felony and have not yet had your civil rights restored. For a first-time felony conviction, civil rights are automatically restored upon completion of a person's sentence and payment of any restitution.
- You have been adjudicated incapacitated by a court of law.

Residency Requirements

You must reside in Arizona at least 29 days (October 7, 2024) before Election Day (November 5, 2024.)

What you need to bring to the polls

When you arrive to vote at the polls on Election Day you will announce your name and place of residence to the election official and present one form of identification from List #1 or two different forms of identification from List #2 or #3. (A.R.S. § 16-579(A)).

Valid identification is also required prior to receiving a ballot at any in-person early voting location or emergency vote center or from a special election board. (A.R.S. § 16-542; § 16-549)

List #1 — Sufficient ID without a photograph that bears the name and address (One required)

- Valid Arizona driver license

- Tribal enrollment card or other form of tribal identification
- Valid United States federal, state, or local government-issued identification

List #2 — Sufficient ID without a photograph that bears the name and address (Two Required)

- Utility bill of the elector that is dated within 90 days of the date of the election. A utility bill may be for electric, gas, water, solid waste, sewer, telephone, cellular phone, or cable television
- Bank or credit union statement that is dated within 90 days of the date of the election
- Valid Arizona Vehicle Registration
- Indian census card
- Property tax statement of the elector's residence
- Tribal enrollment card or other form of tribal identification
- Arizona vehicle insurance card
- Recorder's Certificate
- Valid United States federal, state, or local government-issued identification, including a voter registration card issued by the County Recorder
- Any mailing to the elector marked "Official Election Material"

List #3 — Mix & Match from Lists #1 and #2 (Two Required)

- Any valid photo identification from List 1 in which the address does not reasonably match the precinct register accompanied by a non-photo identification from List 2 in which the address does reasonably match the precinct register
- U.S. Passport without address and one valid item from List 2
- U.S. Military identification without address and one valid item from List 2

WHAT THIS MEANS if you want to vote in AZ for the 2024 General Election

1. You must meet all the Voter Eligibility requirements, AND
2. You must be living in AZ as of October 7, 2024 (at least 29 days prior to Election Day - November 5, 2024), AND
3. You must be registered at this AZ address on or before October 7, 2024 either online, by mail or in person.

WHY you should consider voting in AZ instead of NJ.

Arizona has competitive races that can determine the Presidency and the Senate.

In the presidential race, Kamala Harris needs Arizona's 11 electoral votes. Senator Kyrsten Sinema [I] is not running for reelection this November and Democrats need to win that seat with Ruben Gallego [D] in order to keep the Senate majority. He's running against known election-denier, Kari Lake [R]. In the House races, Arizona has two toss-up races in AZ 1 and AZ 6.
